

Listen and Feel Stories – Cinderella

Focus on: (Area of Learning)

Life Skills – Sensory Awareness – Response to Human Touch

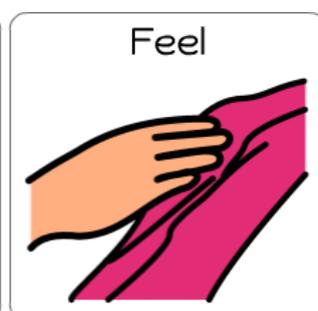

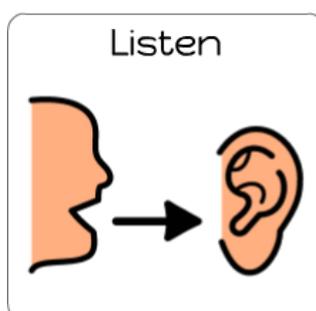

Does your child show a willingness to tolerate a shared social space and tactile awareness eg by sustained looking / listening or repeatedly following movements of head or eyes?

What you will need? (Resources)

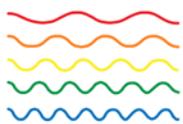

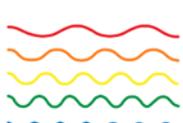

Quiet Room, Internet, Scissors

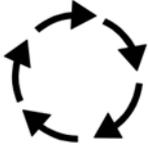

How to play the game? (Instructions)

1. Read each section of the text and apply the action to the child as you are reading.
2. Complete each section and different movements
Watch for response Does your child enjoy sharing personal space sitting quietly together? Does your child appear to notice or briefly focus on the person involved in the interaction?

Cinderella Story Time

flat hands 	Once upon a time there was a beautiful girl who was a servant to her step mother and step sisters.
Wave 	She was called Cinderella after the cinders she swept from the fire place.
squeeze shoulders 	She washed their clothes and did all the household chores without any thanks.
gentle fist 	One day the postman knocked on the door with an invitation to the Grand Ball at the palace.
Wave 	Cinderella was sad because she knew she wouldn't be able to go.
flat hands 	Then her fairy godmother appeared and waved her magic wand. Cinderella's dirty clothes were turned into a beautiful ball gown.
twinkle hands 	She had twinkling glass slippers on her feet. Just imagine how beautiful Cinderella looked.

Circle 	Cinderella danced and danced with the handsome Prince Charming and was very happy.
twinkle hands 	However she knew when the clock struck midnight she would have to run away, or the spell would be broken.
flat hands 	As she ran away she lost a glass slipper.
Walk 	Prince Charming wanted to find the maid who had lost the slipper so he walked and walked across the land.
squeeze shoulders 	Many people tried to fit there foot into the glass slipper but it didn't fit anybody.
flat hands 	Finally he found Cinderella.
gentle pinch 	They were so happy to see each other again.
Circle 	And they lived happily ever after.

